MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1770.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 18.

WE intend opposing the Russian Fleet with 19 Ships of War, 8 of which are ready, and the rest on the Point of being built. The Russian Resident, with his Retinue, is conducted to Demotica; and Count Potocki, with his to Rufzezyk.

Genoa, Jan. 27. Letters from Toulon advise, that the Men of War and Frigates at that Port, are getting ready to sail as soon as possible, in order to cruise in the Mediterranean.

From the Frontiers of Turkey, Jan. 28. The Preparations of the Turks for the ensuing Campaign are extremely great, and they intend to encrease their Forces to 300,000 Men, which the Grand Visir proposes to command himself, and they are at Work Night and Day making Arms for the Recruits.

Lateczow, Feb. 2. A Courier from Maldavia, has just brought to Count Romanzow Advice, that on the 18th Ult. a Body of 3000 Russians had attacked, near Fora, 8000 Turks, of whom 3000 were left dead on the Spot. This Courier was charged with some valuable Effects, taken in this Action from the Turks, some of which are for our General in Chief, and the others for the other Generals. We have now no Doubt that the Russians will soon make themselves Masters of the Fortress of Brohilow; and that the Valachians will send Deputies to Petersburgh, to implore her Imperial Majesty's Protection.

Petersburgh, Feb. 6. Yesterday a Courier arrived here from General Romanzow with Advice, that on the 15th of last Month, a second Engagement happened between Gen. Podgoritschany, and another Party of the Enemy, different from those of the preceding Day, consisting of 2000 Infantry and 6000 Cavalry, headed by Three Pachas, and supported with Nine Pieces of Cannon; they attacked our Troops near Toschany, but were happily routed after leaving above 1000 Turks upon the Field of Battle. We have taken in this last Affair several Standards, some Cannon, and Two Waggons loaded with Powder.

Geneva, Feb. 16. Yesterday, at Three, a very dangerous Sedition broke out in this City. The Design of the Persons concerned in it, was to murder the Council, and afterwards the Burgesses, and then to make themselves Masters of the City. In Half an Hour more all had been lost. Two or Three Hundred had already began to fire, but did no other Mischief than slightly wounding a few. the Alarm was then given, and the General beat. The Garrison were in a Moment under Arms, and Four of the seditious laid dead on the Spot. The main Body, which exceeded Two Thousand, all active, bold Persons, was at Fouro. The Four Syndics in Office went there, and ordered them to lay down their Arms. The Insurgents refused; but the good Countenance of the Garrison, supported by a Party of the Burgesses, obliged them to surrender. The Ringleaders were taken and committed to Prison, and it is imagined will loose their Heads, as well as several others who have just been apprehended. Among the dead are Four Persons. We expect To-morrow 600 Men from Nyon, which, it is hoped, will put a final Stop to this unhappy Affair.

Algiers, Feb. 23. The Dey understanding that Two of his Chebecks, one of 24 and the other of 30 Guns, had been taken by the Spaniards, and that the Captain of one of the Vessels had been obliged to surrender, in Consequence of his Ship having been previously damaged by a French Frigate, was so irritated, that he ordered an Embargo to be laid on all the French Ships in this Harbour; and after severely reproaching the French Consul, dispatched a Vessel to Marseilles, in order to demand Satisfaction for the Insult he had received.

LONDON,

Feb. 22. We are told, that the Grand Signior has publicly declared, that if the British Court assists the Empress of Russia with any Ships of War, or other Naval Aid, so as the Turkish Men of War be taken, or any Ways damaged, by such Assistance, he will order the British Ambassador to be impaled alive, in the most public and conspicuous Place in all Constantinople.

Feb. 27. This Week several Ships will leave the River Thames, loaded with Goods, at the Risk of the Merchants, for America, as there is the highest Probability of a Reconciliation taken Place between Great-Britain and her Colonies.

Feb. 28. At the last Meeting, it is said, the Amount of Mr. Wilkes's Debts was reduced to about Four Thousand Pounds; and it further appeared, that a ministerial Agent had bought up Sixteen Hundred Pounds, which he is determined not to give a Discharge for under Twenty Shillings in the Pound.

Monday an Express was sent off from the Admiralty-Office, for Commodore Forest, Commander in Chief of the Leeward Islands Squadron in the West-Indies.

March 1. A Council is appointed to be held on Saturday next at the Cockpit, Whitehall, when, it is asserted, some Matters of the greatest Importance, respecting America, will be the chief Subject of Consideration.

We hear that a certain Baronet had very nigh been brought upon his Knees.

It is said that oblique Offers have been made to some of the Heads of the Minority of certain lucrative Places, but they have declined accepting them, as they would not choose to join certain Persons in A———n, whom they consider as the Foes of the People.

March 3. Wednesday came on the Hearing of the Allegations against Sir Francis Bernard at the Cockpit, Whitehall.

We are assured, that although a certain Baronet is expected to be acquitted of all American Accusations, he was on Thursday Noon informed by the Earl of H———, that it was not his M—j——y's Intentions to employ him any more in America, but that he might hope for Employment of his Abilities, in his Master's Service, elsewere.

A Case is drawn up, and expressed in very warm and urgent Terms, by the Council for the People of the Town of B———n in A———a, which is to be laid before a certain Board in a few Days, and from whose Opinion thereon much is expected.

A celebrated foreign Politician makes the following striking Remark upon the English Constitution. The Laws, says he, do not indicate, with proper Perspicuity and Explicitness, how far the Rights of each of the Three Legislative Powers extend. There are Three Things in England without any known Limits; the King's Prerogative; the Liberties of the People; and the Privileges of the Parliament. This, of Course, must sometimes make the Government vague and unstable, and bring on Confusion: For how natural is it, and it has more than once been actually the Case, that the King, the People, and the Parliament, having no determined Limits, should be for extending their respective Prerogatives, Liberties and Privileges, to an improper Length. The Consequences of such Attempts, have been violent Contests and Parties, which have divided the Nation, and produced innumerable Evils, intestine Wars and Revolutions.

The Trade of the Colonies is really the Trade of Great-Britain herself; the Profits thereof center here: It is one grand Source, from whence Money so plentifully flows into the Hands of the several Manufacturers, and from thence into the Coffers of Landholders, throughout this Kingdom; it is, in short, the strongest Chain of Connexion between Britain and her Colonies. The Embarrassments, Difficulties, and insupportable Burdens, under which this Trade has laboured, have Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, "That some Persons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requested of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majesty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Vessels, the Brilson and Penthievre, which were among the Number of those that the India Company had ceded to him.

It is said that the Middlesex Remonstrance is intended to be presented on Friday next.

The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonstrance from the County of Kent.

Yesterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, at which were present, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of

One of the Noblemen summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose."

March 11. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dismission of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden) that those Two Noblemen have so concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his M———'s just Rights; but it is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Coruna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows; I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me direct the already made the Americans prudent, frugal and industrious; and such a Spirit in the Colonists must soon, very soon enable them to subsist without the Manufactures of Great-Britain, the Trade of which, as well as its Naval Power, has been greatly promoted and strengthened by the Luxury of the Colonies; consequently, any Measures that have a Tendency to injure, obstruct, and diminish the American Trade and Navigation, must have the same Effect upon that of Great-Britain, and, in all Probability, prove her Ruin.

We are assured that Lord North has had the Happiness, since he has been at the Head of Affairs, to give great Satisfaction to both Parties, by his candid and spirited Conduct.

OLD England sends her Blessings to her Sons, the Agents and Advocates for North-America, conjuring them, by all they hold dear and sacred to themselves, and to their Posterity, to act as it becomes them—with Firmness—yet with Decency, upon the approaching important Occasion; and if they ask nothing inconsistent with a Parent's Justice to herself—or Tenderness to her other Children to grant, they may safely rely upon her Protection and Favour.—The Mode of their Prayer will either increase or lessen the Number of their Relations—who wish to join them in a Hymn of Praise and Thansgiving—rather than to see them cloathed in Sackcloth and Ashes. Be wise in Time."

March 6. Yesterday there was a very full House, the Object of the Debate was the Petition of the American Merchants, for the Repeal of certain Acts laying Duties upon Goods imported to the said Colonies.

March 7. At a Meeting held on Monday, we are informed, it was resolved to take off all the Duties lately imposed, except the additional Duty laid on a certain Asiatick Herb.

Bets on Monday Night, on Colony Affairs, we are told were,

Yesterday all the Ships Bills put up at the New-England Coffee-House, for several Parts of North America, were taken down and burnt, and we are credibly informed, several Advertisements will soon be published, giving the greatest Encouragement to all Sorts of Manufacturers to transport themselves and Families to the Continent.

The Question relative to the creating certain Officers to act as British Consuls in the different Colonies, will be shortly debated in a certain Assembly.

Some say that very few of the Orders from America will be executed, as the Act for a Duty on Tea is still to be in Force; and most of the Orders expressly forbid the Goods, unless all the Acts for Taxation of America be repealed. But we have also been assured that the Price of British Goods over the Water is so much advanced, that the American Merchants, and many new Adventurers, will send several Ships on their own Risk, and perhaps double the Quantity of Goods, under Orders, will be exported, in the Course of this Month, by those Means.

Some Gentlemen of great Fortune in the Colonies, are daily expected in London, on Affairs of the last Importance.

We have Accounts from Birmingham, Sheffield, and Manchester, that a Number of additional Artificers have, within these few Days, been taken into Pay, to compleat the very extensive Commissions now executing for North-America.

It is reported, that Accounts of the Quantity and Value of Teas, exported to the American Colonies from Christmas, 1761, to Christmas, 1769, are making out for Inspection.

Accounts have been presented of all the Goods, &c. exported to North-America, during the last Two Years.

Accounts are also said to be preparing of all Monies issued for secret and special Services since his Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

Similar Accounts are making out for the last Eight Years of his late Majesty's Reign.

Orders are said to have been sent for the several Station Ships on the American Coast, to repair with all Expedition to Jamaica, &c.

We have it from good Authority, that the French have at this Time a great Number of small Ships of War building in the several Ports of Corsica.

We hear that a noble Lord still continues to urge the Expediency of demanding a categorical Answer from the Courts of France and Spain, relative to the Object of their present warlike Preparations in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America.

March 8. Yesterday, at Half after Eleven, the Sheriffs attended at St. James's, to know his Majesty's Pleasure when he would be waited on with the City Address, Remonstrance, and Petition; they waited 'til Twenty Minutes after Two, when the Levee being over, they, with the Remembrancer, were admitted into the Closet, when Mr. Sheriff Townsend addressed himself to his Majesty in the following Words:—

"May it please your Majesty,

"By Order of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery, of the City of London, in Common-Hall assembled, we took the earliest Opportunity, as was our Duty, to wait upon your Majesty; and being prevented by one of your Majesty's Houshold, who informed us, that it was your Majesty's Pleasure to receive us this Day, wait on your Majesty, humbly to know, when your Majesty will please to be attended with an humble Address, Remonstrance, and Petition."

To which his MAJESTY was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

"As the Case is entirely new, I will take Time to consider of it, and transmit you an Answer by one of my principal Secretaries of State."

We are informed by a Gentleman lately arrived from the Continent, that above Five Weeks ago there were 26 Ships of War at Cadiz, near 20 of which are Ships of the Line, ready to put to Sea at Two Hours Notice, and several of their Sails were actually bent; and that there were near the same Number in the Caraccas, that would be ready to go to Sea in a Week.

Alderman H——ley spoke with great warmth upon the Subject, calling such a Meeting factious and seditious, and said, "For his Part, as a Member of P——, he would take the earliest Opportunity of bringing all those who signed the Remonstrance to the Bar of the H——e, to answer to such Conduct." Upon which Mr. Sheriff T——d replied, "Why then, by God's Blessing, you shall begin with me, as I am determined to be one of the first Subscribers."

We hear that Sir Edward Hawke, accompanied by some more of the Lords of the Admiralty, will set out soon, to take a Survey of Milford Haven, which has long been esteemed one of the best Ports in the Kingdom, for the stationing of a Fleet in Time of War.

March 10. Israel Wilkes, Esq; Brother to the celebrated Patriot, is appointed British Consul at Aleppo, in Syria, and he and his Family are now preparing for their Voyage thither. This Gentleman, who has never been in the Opposition, had a Place given him during the Earl of Bute's Administration. He is a Gentleman of very solid Parts, and great Abilities.

It is confidently asserted that Lord Mansfield will be made Chancellor very soon.

We hear a noble Lord's Reasons for alledging that our inveterate Enemies the French, have already struck an important Blow, against this Nation in a certain Quarter of the Globe, are actually preparing to be laid before an august Assembly.

It is also said, that a Number of Agents, employed by the M——ry, are gone down into the different Counties and Boroughs, in order to prevent any Remonstrances taking Place.

A Great Personage in a late Conference with a patriotic Nobleman, urged his Dillike of the present Mode of Petitions. On which his Lordship said, you know, my Liege, it has always been customary to address the Throne for Redress of Grievances: To which his M——y hastily replied, "The Law of Custom is the Law of Fools, but it shall never govern me."

A Letter from the Confines of Switzerland, dated the 17th Ult. says, "We are still in Confusion, and unacquainted with the Nature or Extent of the Sedition which broke out the Day before Yesterday. Thanks to our choice Spirits, who succeed but too well in their Endeavours to stifle every Resentment of Religion, Honour and Humanity. Geneva, heretofore the Seat of Piety, is now become a true Tower of Babel.

Some Letters from Minorca mention a Report prevailing there, that Occasion has been given lately, for suspecting some secret Designs of our old Enemies being now in Agitation against that Island.

It is observable, that a certain foreign Ambassador has, for some Weeks past, discontinued all Conferences with the Ministry; and a Rumour now prevails, that his Residence here will be of no long Continuance.

It is reported for certain, that the several Armaments, now fitting out in the Ports of the Mediterra-

'Tis even said with an Air of Authority, the Dey of Algiers will be the first Object of Resentment, in Return for the many Piracies and Depredations committed by his Cruizers on the Subjects of their most Christian and Catholic Majesties.

March 15. Yesterday, betwixt XII and I o'Clock, the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, attended by Sir Wm. Stephenson, Alderman Trecothick, and the Two Sheriffs, followed by several of the Common Council and Liverymen of this City, in upwards of Sixty Carriages, went from Guildhall, to St. James's, to present the Address, Remonstrance, and Petition (the Streets were lined with an incredible Number of People from the Manfion-House, to St. James's Palace) where they arrived about Two o'Clock; they were introduced into the Presence Chamber, by the Lord in Waiting, where his Majesty was seated on his Throne, attended by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Gloucester and Cumberland on his Right and Left, and a great Number of the Nobility; the Remonstrance was attempted to be read by the Common Serjeant, but he was so ill, that he could not go through with it; upon which it was given to the Town Clerk, who read it with an audible Voice.

The Address, Remonstrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the City of London, in Common-Hall assembled.

To the KING's Most Excellent MAJESTY.

"May it please your Majesty,

WE have already in our Petition dutifully represented to your Majesty the chief Injuries we have sustained. We are unwilling to believe, that your Majesty can slight the Desires of your People, or be regardless of their Affection, and deaf to their Complaints, yet their Complaints remain unanswered; their Injuries are confirmed; and the only Judge, whom the Revolution has left removable at the Pleasure of the Crown, has been dismissed from his high Office, for defending in Parliament the Law and the Constitution. We therefore venture once more to address ourselves to your Majesty, as to the Father of your People, as to him, who must be both able and willing to redress our Grievances; and we repeat our Application with the greater Propriety, because we see the Instruments of our Wrongs, who have carried into Execution the Measures of which we complain, more particularly distinguished by your Majesty's royal Bounty and Favour.

"Under the same secret malignant Influence, which, through each successive Administration, has defeated every good, and suggested every bad Intention, the Majority of the ——— of ——— have deprived your People of their dearest Rights.

"They have done a Deed, more ruinous in its Consequences, than the levying of Ship Money by Charles the First, or the dispensing Power assumed by James the Second: A Deed, which must vitiate all the future Proceedings of this ———; for the Acts of the Legislature itself can no more be valid without a legal ——— of ———, than without a legal Prince upon the Throne.

"Rep———s of the People are essential to the making of Laws; and there is a Time when it is morally demonstrable, that Men cease to be R———s. That Time is now arrived. The present ——— of ——— do not rep——t the People. We owe to your Majesty an Obedience, under the Restrictions of the Laws, for the Calling and Duration of Parliaments; and your Majesty owes to us, that our Representation, free from the Force of Arms or Corruption, should be preserved to us in them.

"It was for this we successfully struggled under James the Second; for this we feasted, and have faithfully supported your Majesty's Family on the Throne.

"The People have been invariably uniform in their Object; though the different Mode of Attack has called for a different Defence.

"Under James the Second they complained that the Sitting of P———t was interrupted, because it was not corruptly subservient enough to his Designs. We complain now, that the Sitting of this ——— is not interrupted, because it is corruptly too subservient to the Designs of your Majesty's Ministers. Had the ——— under James the Second, been as submissive to his Commands, as it is at this Day to the Dictates of a Minister, instead of Clamours for its Meeting, the Nation would have rung, as now, with Outcries for its Diss——n. The Forms of the Constitution, like those of Religion, were not established for the Form's Sake, but for the Substance, and we call God and Men to Witness, that as we do not owe our Liberty to those nice and subtle Distinctions, which Places and Pensions, and lucrative Employments, have invented, so neither will we be cheated of it by them; but as it was gained by the stern Virtue of our Ancestors, by the Virtue of their Descendants, it shall be preserved.

"Since, therefore, the Misdeeds of your Majesty's Ministers, in vio——ting the Freedom of E———n, and depraving the noble Constitution of P———t, are notorious, as well as subversive of the fundamental Laws and Liberties of this Realm; and since your Majesty, both in honour and Justice, is obliged inviolably to preserve them, according to the Oath made to God and your Subjects at your Coronation: We, your Remonstrants, assure ourselves, that your Majesty will restore the constitutional Government, and Quiet of your People, by d——— this P———, and removing those evil Ministers for ever from your Councils."

To which Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, His Majesty was pleased to return the following Answer:

"I SHALL always be ready to receive the Requests, and to listen to the Complaints of my Subjects; but it gives me great Concern to find that any of them should have been so far misled as to offer me an Address and Remonstrance, the Contents of which I cannot but consider as disrespectful to me, injurious to my Parliament, and irreconcileable to the Principles of the Constitution.

"I have ever made the Law of the Land the Rule of my Conduct, esteeming it my chief Glory to reign over a Free People. With this View I have always been careful, as well to execute faithfully the Trust reposed in me, as to avoid even the Appearance of invading any of those Powers which the Constitution has placed in other Hands. It is only by persevering in such a Conduct, that I can either Discharge my own Duty, or secure to my Subjects the free Enjoyment of those Rights which my Family were called to defend: And while I act upon these Principles, I shall have a Right to expect, and I am confident I shall continue to receive, the steady and affectionate Support of my People."

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 17.

Extract of a Letter, dated London, 7th March 1770.

Lord North moved for a Repeal of so much of the 7th Geo. III, as related to Paper, Glass, and Colours. He introduced his Motion, with taking Notice of the unhappy Misunderstanding between Great-Britain and the Colonies, of the Impolicy of that Part of the Act. He moved for a Repeal of, and with expressing his earnest Wish, that some Plan might be fallen on, productive of general Satisfaction. He observed there was an Agreement with the East-India Company, in respect to the Article of Tea, and intimated that if a new Agreement should be made, the Objection to taking off the Duty on Tea would be less material. He spoke with unexpected Moderation, but remarked, that the American Associations were not to be regarded, he having Papers to shew, that even the rigid Bostonians began to relax. Beckford proposed an Amendment to extend the Repeal to Tea. Pownal spoke next on the State of the American Governments, which he promised at a future Day, to bring more regularly before the House, but to the Merits of the Motion, said little. G. Grenville declared, that he would not divide on any Question which might be put on the Motion, but gave his Opinion, that all the Difficulties they had to encounter, arose from the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, and left the House. General Conway spoke with unusual Warmth for a total Repeal, on the Principle that the British Parliament had no Right to tax the Colonies. Wedderburn was virulent in his Abuse of the Ministry, and particularly for this Attempt, to encourage the seditious Spirit of the Colonists, and to lessen the Authority of the British Parliament over them, most vehemently contending for the Right of of imposing internal Taxes, &c. and concluding absolutely against the Motion. Lord Barrington and Welbore Ellis, on the same Side. Thomas Townsend and Sir William Meredith for a total Repeal, and Col. Barre concluded the Debate with a long animated Speech on the same Side. Burke was entirely silent.

For the Repeal, Tea excepted, - - 204
For a total Repeal, - - - - - - 142

No Division against the Motion. It has been reported, and I believe on a good Foundation, that Lord North was really for a total Repeal, and Lord Hillsborough, supported by the Duke of Bedford against it."

One of the Noblemen summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose.

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dismission of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden) that those Two Noblemen have so concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his M———'s just Rights; but it is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Coruna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me desire the

A LIKELY young Negro Man, about Twenty-three Years of Age, has worked at the Blackſmiths Buſineſs about 9 or 10 Years, is a good Tradeſman, very active, ſupple, and an orderly well behaved Fellow, ſold for no Fault, only that his Maſter declines the Buſineſs. Enquire of the Printers.

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF, at Bladenſburg, once more addreſſes the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is deſirous to furniſh them with Snuff, in the Wholeſale Way, and to prevent Diſappointments, he requeſts them to ſend their Orders to him as ſoon as poſſible, for it is highly probable he may enter into ſuch Engagements, as will effectually hinder his ſupplying them with the Quantities they may want.

It may not be improper to acquaint thoſe Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufactory and are deſirous of becoming Cuſtomers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spaniſh, and high Toaſt Snuff, and many Sorts of thoſe different Kinds.

In theſe Times of Oppreſſion, when Patriotiſm is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped that the Want of Bottles will be no Obſtacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purpoſes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his preſent Stock of Bottles is exhauſted.

He has the Pleaſure to acknowledge himſelf much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Cuſtomers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correſpondence with,
